I'm a professional bagel baker turned front-end web developer, fluent in React.js, TypeScript/JavaScript, HTML, and CSS. Known for my reliability, adaptability, and positive attitude, I approach challenges with enthusiasm and always strive to deliver exceptional results. Despite my lack of professional development experience, I'm a fast learner and passionate about building beautiful and memorable products.

SKILLS

Technologies: React.js, JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML, CSS, Tailwind CSS, Node.js, PostgreSQL, Figma, Unix command line.

PROJECTS

Mappi - Personalized NYC Neighborhood Search

- Users create customized groups of essential living criteria (e.g., proximity to dog parks, Asian markets, gyms, etc.), and the app uses Google APIs to identify neighborhoods that match their preferences. React.js, TypeScript.

Griddle - Daily Art Challenge

- Users sign in to receive a random daily prompt, create pixel art based on the prompt, and post their creations to the main feed. React.js, TypeScript.

Farkle - Risk-It-All Dice Game

- Online dynamic and animated version of Farkle. Roll and bank your highest score. React.js, TypeScript.

Hole in One - A Memory Game

- Responsive, colorful, and replayable memory game created using donuts and React.js.
